Message from Father Rodrigo:

One of the most loved characteristics of Jesus celebrated by the Church is the Good Shepherd, simply because Jesus tends His flock, the Church, for eternity. The Good Shepherd, according to the bible is someone who is willing to lay down his own life for the sake of his sheep and when we talk about sheep, the number is unimportant. The Good Shepherd gives his life for his flock. That is exactly what Jesus did.

The Church is Jesus' sheepfold. In His sheepfold, He has given His sacrament in order to share the divine life with Him. He has given His words to guide its path that bestows grace upon all.

Today, the Church not only celebrates the feast of the Good Shepherd but also the Fourth Sunday after Easter marks the World Day of Prayer For Vocation. I implore to all of you today to pray for the continued growth of vocation in the Church particularly here in our parish. May the Lord calls more men and women to a life of dedication to the gospel and the evangelical counsels as priests, missionaries and religious. Let us particularly pray for our parish members who are in the priestly and religious life and those among us specially the youth in our parish discerning their vocation in the Church. Pray for me as well, your unworthy servant, so that I may continue to offer my life in the service of the Church.

"The Church is the mother of vocations," says Pope Francis. May we become ever-faithful sons and daughters of the Church no matter what the circumstances we are in our life, knowing that our Lord Jesus Christ, the Good Shepherd, leads us to the way of salvation here and for all eternity. Amen.
